

2009 – The event was held at Galloway National in Galloway, NJ. The New Jersey squad retained the Jon Pritsch trophy after the teams battled to a 9-9 draw in the heat and humidity. The New Jersey girls took 2 out of 3 points from their opponents in the final match. Christina Vosters of Philly sunk the final putt of the day, a 4 foot putt for bogey on #18, to maintain her 1 up advantage over New Jersey’s Nicole Marino. Doug Walters’ steady play and 6&5 win in his individual match paced team NJ early but if it wasn’t for the team of Charlie Edler and Jake Goldenring, Philly would have left with the trophy. Charlie won his match 5&4, Jake won 6&5 and as a team they won 6&5, sweeping all 3 points from their Philly counterparts.
