

2011 - Philadelphia Country Club hosted the 5th annual Pritsch Cup. In 1939 Byron Nelson won the US Open at PCC and team New Jersey was trying to leave their mark on the historic course. The first 4 matches were all lopsided with each side sweeping all 3 points in two matches each. The 2011 event would come down to the last group of boys and the girls. Brandon Vance, 2 down with 3 to play against Paolo Matti, won 16, 17 and 18 to win a very important point for Philly. Emily Mills, playing her 5th competitive round in 5 days, played well and won easily 7&6 and helped her partner Noelle Maertz take the fourball match 4&3. There was stellar play on both sides. When their matches concluded Snouffer, Diaz, Bodine and LaMorte were all under par on their round. Snouffer came off the 14th green -1 par for the day and 1 down to Braden Shattuck. Ryan won 15 with a birdie to square up the match and won 16 & 17 with pars to take the first point of the day. New Jersey will host the 2012 Pritsch Cup and is looking for 6 in a row.
