Introducing New PGA WORKS Fellow, Jose Renderoskiewer

The New Jersey PGA and New Jersey Golf Foundation in conjunction with PGA REACH, hired a new PGA WORKS Fellow, 4 year US Navy veteran, Jose Renderoskiewer. Born and raised in Honduras, Renderoskiewer moved to the U.S. at the age of 10. He attended Windsor Plainsboro High School South where he was actively involved in its sports program, playing Football, Lacrosse, and Wrestling. After graduating from high school, Jose decided he wanted to give back in a big way.

After the 9/11 attacks on America, Renderoskiewer enlisted in the Navy in 2004 as an aircraft structural mechanic. Once enlisted, he attended boot camp in Great Lakes, Illinois. He attended his first Naval school in Pensacola, Florida. His first assignment was located in Norfolk VAW-124 Bear Aces, a airplanes, E-2C 2005, he was deployed in Operation Iraqi 2005-2006.

When his service was over, Renderoskiewer moved back to New Jersey to start a new chapter in his life. He attended school at Dickinson University under the Montgomery G.I. Bill. He graduated with an undergrad degree in Sports Administration in a little over 2 years. Jose returned to school for his masters and after 2 years, he

When asked about the opportunity to work as the PGA WORKS Fellow, Renderoskiewer added, "I am very excited about this opportunity. Ever since my first conversation with Chris Hunt, Executive Director of The New Jersey Golf Foundation, I knew this is what I wanted to do. I always wanted to give back to those who have served and I am very excited to help the New Jersey PGA and New Jersey Golf Foundation with their veteran programs, including the programs for disabled veterans. I look forward to working with the New Jersey PGA and New Jersey Golf Foundation and am grateful for this wonderful opportunity".
